

PRIVACY POLICY

In case of concerns related to Privacy Policy or data protection or GDPR, contact us anytime via an email to support@krispcall.com or riskmanagement@krispcall.com.

Requests for data deletion should be submitted to riskmanagement@krispcall.com via an email.

Welcome to KrispCall. Our Privacy Policy governs your visit to Krispcall.com and explains how we collect, safeguard and disclose information that results from your use of our Service. Here in this document, the terms like “us”, “we”, “KrispCall” referred to krispcall.com, and “you,” “your” referred to the customer/user.

At KrispCall, one of our main priorities is the privacy of our visitors. This Privacy Policy document contains information collected and recorded by KrispCall and how we use it. If you have additional questions or require more information about our Privacy Policy, do not hesitate to contact us.

How KrispCall Uses Your Personal Information

KrispCall uses your personal information in the following ways:

- If you have a KrispCall account to use our services, we process your personal information to provide those services, including assigning you a phone number, enabling calls and messages, providing customer support, and billing.
- If you visit our website without logging into an account, we process technical information about your visit to deliver and improve our website services.
- If you have shown interest in KrispCall or agreed to receive marketing communications, we process your information to send you announcements, updates, and marketing.
- If you contact our sales, support or other teams, we process your information to communicate with you, provide assistance, and follow up.
- If we contact you by phone for support, sales or other purposes, we process your number and any information you provide for those business purposes.

KrispCall collects personal information globally from customers, prospects, website visitors and other contacts. We follow privacy laws wherever we operate, while aiming to protect your information to the highest standards. This Privacy Policy applies to all KrispCall services worldwide.

We need certain information to provide our services. If you do not provide requested information, you may not be able to fully use our services.

1. How Do We Collect Your Personal Information?

We collect personal information that you voluntarily provide to us when you register on the website, express interest in obtaining information about us or our products and services when participating in activities, or otherwise when you contact us. The personal information we collect may include the following:

1.1 Information provided by you

The information that we collect from you depends on the activities/interactions while visiting our website. Some of the features/processes might require pre-registration. You may be asked for personal information like mobile number, email address, billing address, and credit card details during registration and some personal documents while verifying KYC and phone number. The personal data may also include your geographical preference and company name.

1.2 Information from the third party

Sometimes we may collect your personal information from third parties and other sources like affiliate partners, Integrated Services, and advertisers. The information collected from the third parties is combined with the personal information collected through the services and treated as personal information as per this privacy policy.

1.3 Information collected automatically

We automatically collect certain information when you visit, use or navigate the website. This information does not reveal your specific identity but may include device and usage information such as IP address, browser and device characteristics, operating system, language preferences, referring URLs, device name, country, location, information about how and when you use our website and other technical information. This information is primarily needed to maintain the security and operation of our website and for our internal analytics and reporting purposes.

1.4 Information collected by clients

KrispCall has no direct access to the information collected by the clients from its customers. A client can easily store or upload the information of its customer. Every client is responsible for providing notice to its customer about the storage and usage of their personal data and how they are being used.

2. Why Do We Collect Your Personal Information?

We process your information for purposes based on legitimate business interests, fulfill our contract with you, comply with our legal obligations, and/or your consent. We indicate the specific processing grounds we rely on next to each purpose listed below.

2.1 Operations

We collect your personal information to provide our services to you. The sole purpose of collecting data is to improve, maintain and operate different services for you. We communicate with you about our services and respond to your comments and inquiries and support the users. This information might be used by our marketing and sales team to ensure a seamless experience.

2.2 Request Feedback

We may use your information to request feedback and to contact you about your use of our website. We also use the collected information for the constant improvement of the services we provide. We analyze your preferences, usage trends and improve our features following them.

This will let KrispCall terminate upon violations of any of these restrictions. Upon termination, your viewing right will also be terminated, and you should destroy any downloaded materials in your possession, whether it is printed or electronic format.

2.3 Analytics

We use the information collected from you to understand your behavior and improve our services responding to user preferences. We use the information collected automatically from cookies to personalize our services according to user preferences and provide the customized information. We use Google Analytics to understand the user behavior and create a user navigation report. Google is an independent unit and has its privacy policy. We do not use any user information to identify users.

3. Who Do We Disclose Your Data With?

We may share your personal information we collect to any third parties websites given that you agree with all our terms and policies. We might share your information with our group companies, third-party service providers, and partners who help us with data processing. Some general information you choose to make public, like your public profile, can be accessed by any visitor. We only share your personal information internally with our personnel and auditors, and externally with service providers working on our behalf.

We may also disclose information:

- To comply with legal requests from government agencies, public authorities, law enforcement, or other entities as required by law. This includes identity verification details if legally required for certain phone numbers.
- To meet national security, law enforcement, or other legal requirements.

We aim to minimize sharing your personal information, only disclosing it as needed for business purposes or as legally required. We ensure service providers protect your data.

We may share your personal information with the following:

3.1. Service Providers

We share your information with the integrated third parties whose services we use in our product like chat features, analytics, hosting, and maintenance. These integrated services providers may use your information as a part of providing better services for you. We do not disclose all your information to such third party vendors. We limit access to your information and provide only the necessary information to them and maintain the confidentiality of information. Below are the cases where we have to share your data with the authorized agencies:

- Carrier Provider Documentation: KrispCall may share specific information required by carrier providers to obtain a number. These documents are securely uploaded to the carrier provider's portal for number requests. Your data remains protected within both systems, utilizing secure protocols during data transfer. It's worth noting that the carrier providers we collaborate with are certified under the Privacy Shield framework.
- Payment Details: When it comes to payment information, our payment processing platform gathers details related to your card and payment. These details are kept exclusively within their system and are not shared externally. This platform provides an efficient way to monitor financial transactions. Importantly, the data related to your payment is safeguarded by our payment processing platform, ensuring it cannot be misused. Your payment details are handled with utmost care and security.

3.2. Business transfers

We may share or transfer your information in connection with or during negotiations of any merger, sale of company assets, financing, or acquisition of all or a portion of our business to another company. If our company merged with the other company or as a part of a bankruptcy proceeding, sale of assets, or any other financial transaction, we might share your information with the acquirer.

3.3. Legal process

We may share your information we collected if the law complies with the court order, judicial proceeding, or other legal processes. We also reserve the right to share personal data or any other information we deem relevant or necessary to protect fraud, misuse, and unlawful act, claim our right against third parties and protect our legal right and avoid the violation of terms of services. We could disclose it with law enforcement, government agencies, courts, or other third parties in the following scenarios:

- When required by applicable laws or regulations.
- To exercise, establish, or defend our legal rights.
- To protect your vital interests or the vital interests of another person.

4. How Do We Protect Your information?

At KrispCall, we're firmly committed to respecting your rights as outlined by the DPA \(Data Processing Agreement\). This means you have the power to access, correct, or delete your personal information in our hold. To exercise these rights, simply contact us via an email to support@krispcall.com or riskmanagement@krispcall.com.

Additionally, we acknowledge your right to limit or object to the processing of your personal data, and you can also request the transfer of your data. If you ever receive marketing messages from us, remember that you can opt out by clicking the "unsubscribe" link.

Your consent matters. If we've collected and processed your personal data based on your consent, you have the freedom to withdraw it at any time. This won't affect the legality of processing prior to your withdrawal. Your data subject rights are paramount. Should you have questions or want to make use of your rights, don't hesitate to get in touch.

Here are a few steps and validations that we have taken in regards to protection of personal data of users:

4.1 CCPA Privacy Rights (Do Not Sell My Personal Information)

Under the CCPA, among other rights, California consumers have the right to:

- Request that a business that collects a consumer's personal data disclose the categories and specific pieces of personal data that a business has collected about consumers.
- Request that a business sells a consumer's personal data, not sell the consumer's personal data.
- If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you. If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please contact us.

4.2 Children's Information

Another part of our priority is adding protection for children while using the internet. We encourage parents and guardians to observe, participate in, and/or monitor and guide their online activity.

KrispCall does not knowingly collect any Personal Identifiable Information from children under the age of 13. If you think that your child provided this kind of information on our website, we strongly encourage you to contact us immediately, and we will do our best efforts to promptly remove such information from our records.

4.3 Online Privacy Policy Only

This Privacy Policy applies only to our online activities and is valid for visitors to our website regarding the information they shared and/or collected in KrispCall. This policy does not apply to any information collected offline or via channels other than this website.

5. User's Data Processing in KrispCall

Specifically, the following information are processed by KrispCall:

5.1 Data Processing of Visitors

A user is considered a visitor when they engage with our website or services without creating an account. As visitors explore our platform, we gather specific data to enhance their experience and understand their preferences. This includes information related to their device, visited pages, and activities tracked by cookies or similar tracking systems.

Specifically, we collect the following data from visitors:

- IP Address: We log the unique address associated with each device to understand broad geographic location and provide relevant content.
- Device Details: We gather device information, such as name, type, model, and identification number, to optimize compatibility and tailor the user experience.
- Browser Information: We capture browser type and version to ensure seamless navigation and presentation.
- Geographic Location: We analyze broad geographic data to customize content and improve regional relevance.
- Tracking Activities: We employ cookies or similar tracking systems to monitor visitor activities, enhancing our services and personalizing interactions.

Cookies and similar tracking technologies are used by KrispCall to determine interests and provide services accordingly to our site visitors and users. The collected information are not related to personally identifiable data in any way. User's also get an option to set themselves anonymous by disabling all the related toggles. To learn more about cookie implementation and protection of collected information, please visit our Cookie Policy page.

5.2 Data Processing of Customers

For our valued current customers – those who have recently signed up or are already enjoying our services – we recognize the significance of your continued journey with KrispCall. This segment represents individuals and organizations who are actively engaged with our platform, and we want to assure you that your privacy remains paramount.

In relation to current customers, we may collect different personal and organizational information to ensure a seamless experience. More information on data categories, processing period and legal basis for data processing can be found in our Data Processing Agreement \(DPA\).

6. Data Retention

We take a thoughtful approach to retaining your personal information. We ensure that we only keep your data as long as there is a legitimate business reason to do so, such as providing you with the services you've requested or meeting legal obligations.

When the time comes for data to be no longer needed, we follow a careful process. This could involve deleting or anonymizing your data if it's possible and appropriate.

IN CASE YOUR WORKSPACE SUBSCRIPTION DOES NOT GET RENEW ON THE NEXT BILLING DATE DUE TO ANY REASON, THE WORKSPACE STATUS CHANGES TO EXPIRED STATE. THE DATA WITHIN THAT WORKSPACE GETS DELETED AUTOMATICALLY AFTER 15 DAYS FROM THE DATE OF EXPIRY.

IN CASE WE CANCEL YOUR WORKSPACE SUBSCRIPTION, ALL THE NUMBERS, CALL LOGS AND SMS LOGS WITHIN THAT ACCOUNT GET DELETED ON THE NEXT BILLING DATE. HOWEVER, THE EMPTY WORKSPACE REMAINS IN OUR RECORDS.

IN CASE YOU CANCEL YOUR WORKSPACE SUBSCRIPTION BY YOURSELF, ALL THE DATA WITHIN THE WORKSPACE ALONG WITH NUMBERS, CONTACTS, CALLS AND SMS GETS DELETED AUTOMATICALLY ON THE NEXT BILLING DATE.

IN CASE YOU PERFORM FRAUDULENT ACTIVITIES WITH THE SERVICE THAT WE OFFER OR THE NUMBERS THAT THE CARRIER PROVIDER OFFERS, YOUR ACCOUNT/NUMBER CAN GET A PERMANENT SUSPENSION AND WE ARE NOT LIABLE FOR THIS.

7. Links to Other Websites

The KrispCall website may contain links to partner, advertiser, or affiliate websites. These third-party sites have their own privacy policies, and KrispCall is not responsible for their use of your personal data. We recommend checking their privacy policies before visiting third-party sites.

8. De-Identified Information

Your information, including Personal Data, may be transferred to – and maintained on – computers located outside of your state, province, country, or other governmental jurisdiction where the data protection laws may differ from those of your jurisdiction.

If you are located outside Singapore and choose to provide information to us, please note that we transfer the data, including Personal Data, to Singapore and process it there.

Your consent to this Privacy Policy followed by your submission of such information represents your agreement to that transfer.

KrispCall will take all the steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and following this Privacy Policy and no transfer of your Personal Data will take place to an organization or a country unless there are adequate controls in place, including the security of your data and other personal information.

9. Changes to this Policy

KrispCall may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. If you don't agree with the changes, you should stop using our services or visiting our website.

Updated policies take effect when posted on our website.

For new processing requiring consent, we will obtain your consent before processing the data.

10. Opt-Out, Communication Preferences

Most web browsers are set to accept cookies by default. If you prefer, you can usually choose to set your browser to remove cookies and reject cookies. If you choose to remove cookies or reject cookies, this could affect certain features or services of our website. You may modify your communication preferences and/or opt-out from specific communications at any time. You can unsubscribe from our marketing email list at any time by clicking on the unsubscribe link in the emails that we send or by contacting us. We may still communicate with you to send Service-related emails that are necessary for the administration. Please specify and adjust your preferences.

11. Do-Not-Track

Most web browsers and some mobile operating systems and mobile applications include a Do-Not-Track feature or setting you can activate to signal your privacy preference not to have data about your online browsing activities monitored and collected. At this stage, no uniform technology standard for recognizing and implementing DNT signals has been finalized. As such, we do not currently respond to DNT browser signals or any other mechanism that automatically communicates your choice not to be tracked online. If a standard for online tracking is adopted that we must follow in the future, we will inform you about that practice in a revised version of this privacy notice.

Consent

BY USING OUR WEBSITE, YOU HEREBY CONSENT TO OUR PRIVACY POLICY AND AGREE TO ITS TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

IN CASE YOU DO NOT AGREE TO ANY OF THE POLICIES MENTIONED, KINDLY CONTACT US OR LEAVE THE KRISPCALL PLATFORM.
